

Superbowl Mad Lib

"Blue, 42, blue, 42, _____ (adjective) _____ (food), set.... HIKE!" And just like that, the big game had begun. Both teams had worked and waited for this moment all season long. The fans filled the stands dressed in their best team _____ (piece of clothing) cheering on their team! The _____ (color) _____ (plural noun) from _____ (city) were known to be the toughest and roughest team in the league. Their quarterback was the tallest and _____ (characteristic) athlete in the game. On the other side of the field, the _____ (adjective) _____ (plural animal) were known for their speed! The _____ (football position) ran with the speed of a _____ (adjective) _____ (animal). These teams going head to head on the _____ (color) football field was sure to give the fans a great game to watch. Every time a team scored a touchdown, they got _____ (number) points and the crowd went wild!

Of course, one of the best parts of watching a _____ (adjective) football game is the snacks! The concession stand sells all kinds of goodies including _____ (food) and _____ (drink). YUM! One of the fans named _____ (name), was holding their _____ (food), but then their favorite team scored and the fan got so excited they dropped their game day snack all over the floor. Hey... at least their team scored!